

2014 KAGES Student Travel Award

1. Overview

Dr. Sim, Sun Hui is currently a faculty in Geography Department at the University of North Alabama. Through her generous sponsorship, "Sim Student Travel Award" was established in 2010 to provide financial assistance to graduate students in the research field of Geography, Geospatial Technologies and Environmental Sciences. This scholarship is particularly designed to help meet the costs of travel to the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Geographers. This award is for supporting the work of students who implement GIS/RS/Geospatial techniques into his/her research.

2. Eligibility

- a. KAGES membership
- b. Scholarship is open to South Koreans and Korean-Americans.
- c. Applicants must be full-time graduate or undergraduate students in colleges/universities in North America.
- d. Applicants must present his/her research at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Geographers.
- e. Former Sim Student Travel Award recipients may re-apply after an interval of three years.
- f. Recipients should be present at annual KAGES meeting to receive an award.

3. Scholarship Award

- a. Amount: $500 (USD)
- b. Number of awardees per year: Two
- c. Field of Study: Geography, Geospatial Technologies and Environmental Sciences

4. Application material

- a. 1-page cover letter (e.g., statement of professional goals, need for financial support, how this award will benefit the student's studies)
- b. Application form
- c. 1-page curriculum vitae
- d. Transcript from currently-attending school (a scanned image or a PDF file directly printed off from the Web)
- e. Proof of conference presentation at the Annual Meeting of the Association of American Geographers (a scanned image from the AAG site).
- f. A brief letter/email indicating support from your department (e.g. Department Chair, Advisor)

5. Submission: All materials should be submitted via email (support@kages.org).

6. Application deadline: December 3, 2013.

KAGES will inform scholarship recipients by January 17, 2014. Further information is available at KAGES website (www.kages.org).